

Newsletter Christmas 2012

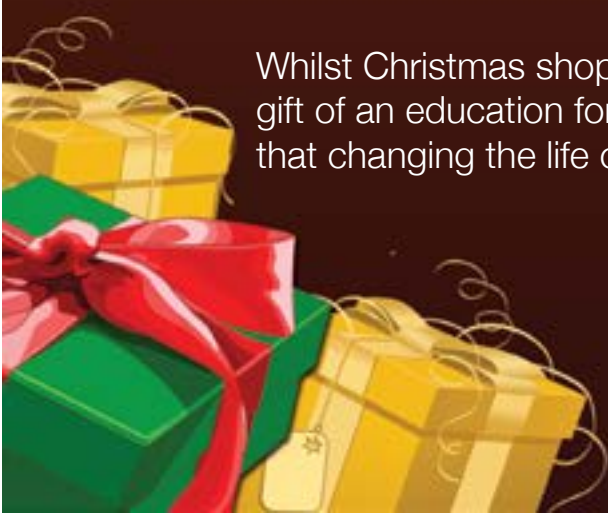

Below are letters written to YOU personally from the children in Zimbabwe saying THANK YOU from their hearts. We couldn't have put it better than they have done.

As you can see they are all growing up so quickly and doing exceptionally well now. If you think back to the film where Esther and Tino were heartbroken by the illness and death of their beloved mother from HIV/AIDS, Obert and Gogo starving and living off tiny birds and ants, Grace and Michelle humiliated into picking through rubbish dumps – how life has changed for them!

Esther and Tino continue to thrive at SOS Children's Village where Esther is excelling at school and enjoying life as a young girl. Obert works hard to realise his dreams of being a doctor and is only happy with straight A's. Grace and Michelle are having individual and group counseling where they have made friends with teenage girls who have experienced similar traumatic experiences and are working as best they can to heal the past and do well in school.

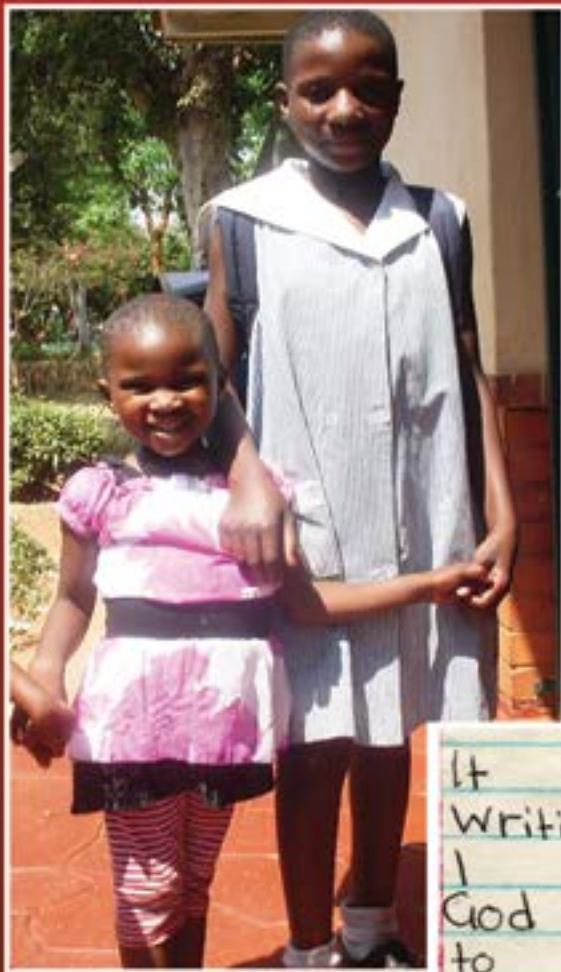

All the children, teachers, parents and communities who have benefited from our education project have amazed us with their efforts and commitment to developing their school and becoming self sufficient. We have included a letter written by a young boy called Obert who is an orphan and lives with extended family. Young Obert started school again this year through our newest Project Batsirai in Hatfield township where we hope to expand the number of children we get back into school – with your help!

Whilst Christmas shopping please consider buying a friend or relative the gift of an education for a child in Zimbabwe. You'll see from the letters below that changing the life of a child extends way beyond Christmas day.

From all of us at Zimbabwe's Children –
Merry Christmas and very best wishes for 2013.

Firstly I would like to thank you for sending me to school.

I'm so thankful that I'm going to school and all the requirements that I need you always provide for me. If I want anything for school you always buy for me.

Since you came in my life has changed and is moving properly. When I was about to go to form one I didn't think that I would go to school or I would have someone who is blessed like you who looks after me, but when you came into my life there is a great change. My family didn't help us when things were tough but since you came with your mercy everything is changed.

I want to thank you for the wonderful things and support that you are doing in my life. I thank you for buying groceries, clothes, rent, paying school fees and for the music.

How are you! back we are all fine. Pass my greetings to your family and friends.

Yours faithfully

Dear Donnar's

I am very happy to write my letter to give my kithanking on supporting me on my legs. You are supporting me with Sugar, Soup, Sayer means cooking oil and at school you are supporting me with uniforms, books and pencils, but the ^{very thing} is about school fees.

At school now I had a friends because of uniform. Everything now is in condition because I have all books. So I no problems to my friend because I used to borrow pens and rules from my friend but now I have all these things that I need to use it. You are supporting me about last time I used a home clothes to school. But now my problem is about shoes I had a any one pair of shoes. Their is my one problem I had.

Now my hart was so happy about this. The Donnar's God bless you about this do not go back about you supporting. I never forget you.

Your friend

Obert .

Thank you

The staff and management of Astute Ltd made it possible for us to create Project Batsirai where 29 more children have started school again this year. Young Obert is one of those children – we are eternally grateful to you all.

Fredrik Eklund has continued his generous support for Zimbabwe's Children by donating enough money for us to assist the families in Hatcliffe Township to start small businesses. Our aim is for them to be in a position to pay school fees for their own children one day. This gift is invaluable to these families and children and we cannot say thank you enough to you Fredrik.

The wonderful grade 9 Geography students of the International School of Stuttgart embarked on a fundraising campaign and raised a phenomenal amount of money for our Chinhoyi school students – covering school fees for 26 children. We always welcome and appreciate any teachers and students who become our partners and recognise the gift of education. Thank you Reuben Snyder and all the students of ISS.

Donations have been gratefully accepted in loving memory of Heidi Holland, who helped establish this cause and who carried Zimbabwe and its people in her heart.

Very many thanks.
